CASE NO. 17-CV-05813-WHA

1       The plaintiffs contacted the Supreme Court's emergency applications clerk for guidance on the 2 proper procedure for submitting this Court's response to the defendants' application for a stay. The 3 clerk advised that if the response that the Court intends to file is to defendants' stay application (as 4 opposed to a response to the underlying petition for a writ of mandamus), then it need not be in booklet
5 format and the Court need not provide 40 copies to the Supreme Court. Any response can be submitted
6 on 8.5x11 paper and the Supreme Court requires only an original and two copies. The emergency
7 applications clerk indicated that she is available to the Court and its staff to facilitate any filing of a 8 response to defendants' application, and plaintiffs will provide her contact information in an email to 9 chambers.
